

I am certainly opposed to the CBA challenge to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law ("ITPL"). Banks and their business affiliates have plenty of opportunity to contact their customers through the mail or at their places of business. If I want a financial service, I know where to find it. The ITPL is essential to the continued privacy of Indiana residents.